From the Director's Desk

The pain and agony of COVID-19 that began in 2020 continued to instil fear in the following year. While looking back, we realise that the story of year 2021-22 unfurled with the increasing severity of Corona virus causing unprecedented death and loss. We practically spent the year 2021 under the fear of death, disruption and loss of life of someone or the other related to us.

However we didn't rest. On seeing people, begging for food, we intensified our Feed India - Protect India campaign, reaching out to people stranded at home. We received more than 400 calls on Child Line – 1098, where parents asked for food for their children. It was a sad situation everywhere. We partnered with several organisations and corporates to reach out to people stranded across 14 states. Our Nutrition and Protection kits were always ready to be carried and delivered to people in need. There were complaints of abuse against women and children and we tried our best to address the same.

Apart from food and dry rations, we made available the lifesaving Oxygen cylinders and concentrators to people struggling for breath. With focus on migrant and minority communities, we moved swiftly to ease the pain and agony of thousands of people who waited for help and support during that critical time.

Our COVID response action also ensured uninterrupted online learning for the children and youth through Digital Bank initiative. They could access digital tools and could continue their studies while at home. We partnered with Jubilant Bhartia Foundation and launched the mobile HP-CLAP project in district Gautum Budh Nagar, U.P. Our aim is to equip each child with basic digital literacy skills. With support from District education department, we are reaching out to children studying in the community and government and low cost private schools. The project runs through a mobile van which is equipped with laptops and Wi-Fi service for practical teaching and learning experience to children across the district.

The year 2021 had been bad for humans. However, it has taught us a lot of lessons in strength and resilience. Drawing upon the learnings, we have continued to work with the feeling of Service Before Us.

With Best Wishes for the year 2022!

COVID-19 Emergency Response

The people in our communities, being the migrants, were without food and money. Their fragile savings were exhausted and they were forced to borrow for their basic sustenance. Our instant action was to provide nutrition and protection kits to migrant families stranded in their little dwellings. We provided dry rations, milk, drinking water, protective masks, soaps and hand sanitizers to the community, child homes, government hospitals and Anganwadi centers.

Our work in the community continued with the mission to feed and protect women, children and their families during COVID-19.

Nutrition & Protection Kits

From March 2020 onwards, we were engaged in COVID-19 relief work. Our aim was to mitigate the impact of COVID-19 and lockdown crisis among low income groups and migrant community. Our endeavor has been to -

- Solve hunger crisis and ease distress during the pandemic
- Prevent and Protect vulnerable from contracting the Corona virus
- Nourish and protect children and prevent child wasting
- Facilitate online learning for children and youth who could not access and afford digital tools
- Restore and organize online lessons for youth for an uninterrupted learning
- Help and support to children from abuse and violence
- Fill Information Gap on issues affecting children, women and youth through online education, webinars and interactive talks.

- Nourishing & Protecting the Vulnerable:

The children can counter COVID-19 if they are well nourished and protected against COVID-19. A total of 14326 Nutrition and Protection kits (NPKs) were distributed with each kit carrying the items essential for nourishment and protection from COVID-19. Oxygen War Room

The Nutrition and Protection Kits were distributed among slum dwellers and migrant laborers across District Gautam Buddh Nagar, Uttar Pradesh and in slum areas of Delhi and Gurugram in Haryana. These were the families who had lost their jobs and means of livelihood. They had no money to buy food. It was a common sight to see women and children begging for food on the streets which were incidentally empty due to lockdown.

We reached to over 314638 beneficiaries with food, rations and protective gears from Corona. These included daily wage laborers, small time vendors, pregnant and lactating women, orphan/deserted children, differently abled people, elderly people, women headed households and migrant workers in Delhi-NCR region including the industrial towns of Noida, Greater Noida and Dadri in U.P. and pockets of Delhi and Gurugram in Haryana. Each Kit provided food for nourishment and items of personal protection from Corona.

- Mere distribution may not work unless the use of medical essentials such as the Thermometer, intake of essential supplements Zinc and Vitamin C, fever reducing tablets- Paracetamol, hand hygiene with soap and hand sanitizers, proper wearing of face masks are explained to people. That's exactly what our Child Line Greater Noida Warriors team does to ensure optimum utilization of Life Kits.

Use of Life Kit is explained for optimum utilization

- Despaired faces lit up when our team reached at the dilapidated jhuggi - jhopri colony at Dadri. The local police at Dadri joined us in the distribution drive. While Food and medical essentials were distributed among the locals, sub-inspector Preeti Chahal, Thana Dadri spoke to those who were seen without the masks and gave them the masks to wear.

- In support of Domestic Helps

We distributed Food Kits among the domestic helps and their children in Sector-55, Noida. During COVID-19, the domestic workers were debarred from work in private homes. Their homes suffered with loss of livelihood. Now that the women are called for work, their husbands are still without work. Their children have been the voiceless sufferers in these circumstances.

- If we could make them Happy

COVID-19 has brought human life to a standstill. The sex workers at G.B. Road in Delhi suffered with no work and no money. Social stigma, as it is, takes a heavy toll on these women. COVID-19 brought distress and pain in their as well as their children's life.

- It's difficult to smile in difficult times. Isn't it
